Financial Report for RhetCanada 2022 AGM

Andrew McGillivray served his third year as Secretary-Treasurer. (2 year term + 1 year term.)

Revenues 2021-2022

- With $3367.21 in revenues and $1933.05 in expenses RhetCanada saw a net gain of $1434.16 in 2021-22.
- CSSR continues to collect EBSCO royalties for Rhetor journal online access through EBSCO databases. Our EBSCO revenue is fairly consistent ($579.41 in 2022; $726.28 in 2021; $616.66 in 2020; $685.63 in 2019; $635.81 in 2018). [Note: we are missing one EBSCO cheque from 2021; see below.]
- The RhetCanada President transferred $2412.80 from PayPal memberships to the CSSR Bank Account in July 2021. Revenues from PayPal memberships up to 6 June 2022 ($2621.02) can be transferred by the President to the CSSR Bank Account during this coming fiscal year.

Expenses 2021-2022

- The Secretary-Treasurer wrote a cheque to reimburse B. Dadey for Web-hosting fees he had paid ($873.65).
- RhetCanada paid its CFSSH membership fee of $500.00, based on an estimate of 30 members (16 full and 14 students).
- Our banking fees continued @ $4.95/month.

Notes:

1. Balance as reflected on TD Bank Statement from May 31, 2021.

2. PayPal Transfer of 2412.80 on July 26, 2021. (Does not include funds received in PayPal since then.)

3. EBSCO: $164.53 USD/$205.33 CDN (May 2, 2022) + 164.75.75 USD/$200.83 CDN (Apr 11, 2022) + 141.64 USD/173.25 CDN (Sep 2, 2021). [Note we did not receive a cheque from EBSCO for 2rd quarter 2021 (April through June); the Rhetor Editor can request a re-issue from EBSCO. Also, the past Rhetor Editor requested a re-issue of the 4th quarter cheque from 2019 (October through December) due to the cheque being stale-dated; the re-issue has not arrived and could be re-requested.]

4. We were billed the minimum membership rate of $500; cheque sent January/2022.

5. We received a credit from our participation in Congress 2021 as our revenues from Association Registration fees ($1005.00) were more than our expenditures ($630.00). The Canadian Federation for Social Sciences and Humanities credited our Bank Account with $375.00 on July 16, 2021.

6. No additional Conference Expenditures.

7. We awarded three student prizes last year ($175 + $175 + $150 = $500).

8. @ $4.95 x 12 months.

9. A. McGillivray issued a cheque to B. Dadey for Web Hosting fees he had paid. (Cheque sent in December 2021.)

10. No extra expenses at this point.

11. The balance is $8483.59 from the May 31, 2022 TD Bank statement.

Existing balance:

$8483.59 (May 31, 2022)

Anticipated Revenue:

$2621.02 -- PayPal transfer for 2021-22 fees paid [i.e. currently sitting in PayPal account]

$650.00 -- EBSCO revenue (estimated) [Note: this year is slightly lower due to missing cheque, which we can request as re-issue]

Total Anticipated Revenue:

$3271.02

Anticipated Expenses:

0.00 -- Website Fees (Though this will change, as Web Hosting is paid for by B. Dadey)

$500.00 -- Student Prizes (or some similar amount, as decided at AGM) [Note: in 2021 there were two 'prizes'—co-winners who received 175.00 each—and one 'honourable mention' who received 150.00]

$500.00 -- CFHSS 2022 Membership

Total Anticipated Expenses:

$1000.00 [or similar amount, depending on Student Prizes and Web Hosting Fees]

Anticipated Balance ($8483.59 + 3271.02 – 1000.00)

$10,754.61 (depending on revenue and expenses)
