

Proceedings of the Canadian Society for the History of Rhetoric

Edited by John Stephen Martin
and
Christine Mason Sutherland

101923874 0

U. W. O. LIBRARIES

Date due

Library materials subject to RECALL.

DEC 04 1996

DEC 04 RECU

The engraving on the cover is by Hendrik Goltzius and is dated 1592. It shows Polyhymnia, the muse of sacred song and rhetoric. The engraving is reproduced here by kind permission of the publishers of Hendrik Goltzius: The Complete Engravings and Woodcuts. New York: Abaris Books, 1977.

PROCEEDINGS of the
CANADIAN SOCIETY FOR THE HISTORY OF RHETORIC

Edited by
John Stephen Martin
and
Christine Mason Sutherland

Calgary, 1986

© 1986, Canadian Society for the History of Rhetoric
All rights reserved