

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The editors wish to thank a number of people for their help in producing the first Proceedings of the Canadian Society for the History of Rhetoric. We are particularly grateful for the generous assistance of Dr. Robert Seiler of the University of Calgary, especially for his discovery of the emblem on the cover. We also wish to thank Ms. Jody Gronvold and Mrs. Barbara MacLeod for typing Part I, and especially Ms. Jo-Anne Kabeary, not only for typing Part II but also for her painstaking work in rendering the whole consistent and preparing camera-ready copy.

In addition the editors wish to thank the Social Sciences Humanities Research Council of Canada and the Discourse Analysis Research Group of the University of Calgary for their grants which funded this publication. Finally, we are please to thank Dr. Josef Schmidt of McGill University for having the vision to secure the initial grant that made this collection possible.
