

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS / REMERCIEMENTS

This, the second volume of the Actes or Proceedings of the Canadian Society for the History of Rhetoric could not have been published without a grant from the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada. The Society wishes to thank the Council for its aid.

The editor wishes to express his deep appreciation to Greg Schmidt of the Carleton University School of Business for his invaluable and frequently invoked assistance in preparing the text for electronic printing. The editor also gives grateful thanks to Professor David Beer of the Classics Department, Carleton University, for lending his expertise during the verification of the Ancient Greek sources.

Ce second volumes des Actes de la Société Canadienne pour l'Histoire de la Rhétorique est publié grâce à une subvention de la part du Conseil de recherches en sciences humaines du Canada. Nous tenons à remercier le Conseil de son aide.
